DON'T NEGLECT IT.

Bowel Trouble Is Too Common To Create Alarm. Yet If Unchecked, Great Dangers Result.

Diarrhoea is Catarrh of the Bowels Which Pe-ru-na Invariably Cures.

ATARRH when it affects the bowels, manifests itself by a Diarrhoea which if neglected soon becomes chronic, and is often fatal. Pe-ru-na will cure this trouble as it does all other catarrhal affections. John Harting, 933 Main Street, Cincinnati, O., writes: "Both my wife and myself were afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. We took your Pe-ru-na. It cured us. Since taking it I have had no recurrence of my trouble. No doctor or medicine we had tried before had given us any help.

The following letter on the same subject is interesting as coming from a patient who had neglected his case so long he was in a precarious condition. "Gentlemen:—I suffered from Dysentery for three years. I took Pe-ru-na and am now well. My case was old and chronic and I believed myself incurable. I shall always use Pe-ru-na. John Edgerton, 1080 Third Ave., Altoona, Pa."

The following tells of a man who could not have been in much worse condition and live, when Pe-ru-na cured him. T. E. Miller, of Grand Prairie, Texas, writes: "I had chronic diarrhoea for fifteen years and was in a terrible nervous and depleted state. The many medicines and doctors that I tried did me no good. At one time I paid as much as $80 to a single doctor in New York for his service, and although he did relieve me for a short time the trouble soon returned. Pe-ru-na was recommended by a friend so I decided to try it and procured a few bottles. It relieved me at once. At the time of writing I am perfectly well and feel better than I have for years. Pe-ru-na is my family medicine and ever will be."

You should realize it is easier to get well and cease to suffer than it is to drag out a miserable existence. Catarrh may develop any where where there is a mucous membrane to be attacked. And as the mucous membrane is the internal lining of all the organs of the body, it may be seen how widespread is the field for this disease. If you suffer from troubles that originate from taking cold, no matter whether located in the head, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys, liver or bowels, take Pe-ru-na. You are in doubt as to any symptoms in your special case, you should write to Dr. S. B. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, who will advise and direct you without charging you a cent. Pe-ru-na for years has received the blessing of thousands for the good it has done in the West and South, and is now becoming equally popular in New England. All druggists sell Pe-ru-na.

Notice.
BURGLARS broke the post-office safe at Cornish, Thursday morning. The safe of Fullerton Jameson was destroyed, two large windows broken, the store damaged and $900 in cash carried off. The noise made by the explosion awoke people in the vicinity of the post-office and those who threw up their windows were threatened by the armed burglars, and were told to take their heads in or they would be shot.

TONGS? OR GLASSES?
Bates Choate, the great lawyer orator, having arrived at old age, like many others, did not wish to use glasses. A certain judge, before whom he appeared one day, observing how Mr. Choate held his MSS at arm's length and then read with difficulty, said, "Mr. Choate, I would advise you to get one of two things, either a pair of tongs or a pair of glasses." Which will YOU HAVE?

At the Front.

Letter Written by Wilfred H. Soothorne of Norway. He Tells How They Fare and What the Soldiers Who Mourn Because They Staid in the United States. Utuado, Puerto Rico, Sept. 2, '98.
I am well but I have not been feeling good of late. This is a fearful climate and it is going hard with a great many of the boys. There are now eighty officers and men able to march, twenty-six are in hospitals and returned home on the way. When we landed here we had six men in the ranks, I was one and have always been there at the finish of a march.

I have been company cook for the last four weeks and have been up late at night drawing rations and cooking for breakfast. Our quartermaster is in Ponce on the sick list and it makes it hard for us. We have been living on less than half rations since we left the United States. It is an awful shame. The men were in good condition when we left the United States. We were cramped on the S. S. Yale for 18 days, then put on shore and made to row boats 1/2 mile or more bringing in stores all day.

The first night on shore we put out to reinforce the outpost and were led into an ambush and had a taste of real fighting. The bullets whizzed by our ears in very close order but we stood our ground and answered them back in grand style. We charged under cover of our smoke and drove them from their position. The scrap lasted about five hours. It started one hour before daylight and the hot sun on empty stomachs in an irrigation ditch in a sugar field is not a very desirable place to stay in.

We marched into line when the recall sounded and back to town, where we found the band and drum corps starting out with ammunition to us. We were put to work on the boats again and that night after being in the rain all day, we fell in at 8 o'clock and laid on the road all night ready to go and drive the Spaniards back for they were shooting all night but there was no attack and we turned in again to sleep on the wet ground.

Half of the men did not have any blankets for we took our rolls with us and had to throw them away in the battle. I was lucky and found mine. On the return to camp we found out that afternoon that when the firing ceased the Spaniards had lined up to surrender but we did not know it. They got out of sight of us. Co. E knows what it is to head lead going through the air. It is a miracle how we were saved. The enemy lost four killed and eighty-two wounded. The number on our side was two wounded.

We started for Ponce the following Saturday on empty stomachs and a hard march it was. The men dropped out by heat and sore feet. In this country there are no bridges to speak of and we had to wade the streams oftentimes up to our waist and then hit the dusty road in the hot sun. It has a tendency to make a man feel footsore.

Our officers, Col. Woodward, Lieut. Col. Chaffin and Major Taylor have resigned because they refused to shoot the stragglers but the 6th of Massachusetts can march under like conditions as far as fast as any in the Union, and Gen. Garretson should have given the order to shoot the stragglers of the 6th Illinois for they had double that we had.

We do not get any news here but old news. We received to-day papers of Aug. 22, and some of July 15 and 20.

We cannot tell when our regiment is going home but we hope soon, and some of those fellows who are crazy to go to the front can come. I can tell them they will be sorry they ever did. The men are dying faster every day. I weigh 160 pounds now, I weighed when I went to Camp Dewey 195; only 35 lbs. lost and a good dose of rheumatism that will last me all my life.

We camped one night on the march from Ponce on a side hill, where I drove two stakes in the ground and tied myself to them with my tent rope to keep from rolling down. A thunder storm came up and drenched us through to the skin but I did not wake up till morning. The next night after guarding the wagon train all day, we camped on a level spot on a side hill and I woke up at 3 a. m. with the water just coming up around my ribs laying on my back. I got up, made a stew of canned beef and tomatoes, coffee and hard tack and marched all that day. If I did not have the constitution of an army mule I would be dead.

We stayed in Adjutant one week and struck out for here. We camped in a sugar field here and got washed out one night. We lost three days' rations of hard tack down the river.

We are now in barracks in the city. We are doing garrison duty here and have a great old time keeping the rest of the regiment out of mischief. We have a coffee drying house to stay in, it is out of the mud and water anyway.

The regiment is lousy. I found my first one yesterday and proceeded to boil my clothes in native soap and kerosene. I think that will hold them for awhile. We have been living on hard tack, bacon and coffee, canned tomatoes occasionally, since arriving here. The men have all got the dysentery and altogether we are a miserable lot and willing to come home, and I will guarantee we won't be so patriotic again for a long time.

The ox teams got over the mountains to-day for the first time. The road was nothing but a bridge path but the engineer corps has been at work. It is up hill and down. There are places where they put 6 pairs of cattle on one cart, and others where they let them down with a snag rope.

What Do the Children Drink?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new grain food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee, but costs about as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

COINCIDENCE OR WHAT?

By ALICE E. IVES.

[Copyright, 1896, by the Author.]
"I think she's a charming woman."
"But her face?" I queried.
"Her face? Oh, I only remember her eyes. When you are watching a firefly on a dark night, you do not think of his feet."

"We went very often to the professor, and there were walking and riding excursions and moonlight strolls toward the Wolfsbrunnen."
"On these latter occasions it did not take me long to find out that Miss Stirling preferred Phil's company to mine, so I obligingly walked with the professor and talked of strata and crystallization, when I would much rather have listened to the witchery of the girl's voice."

"She was a few years older than Phil, but at times seemed much younger, and, like other people in the same situation, I wondered what such an intellectual woman could see in him. It seemed to me that she should only have cared for a great young man, or a count of 'blameless king,' a demigod towering above his fellow creatures."

"To be sure, Phil Morely was a merry, good hearted fellow and a capital chum, but he would never be capable of anything great, not even a great determination or a great sacrifice."

"He would expand and blossom out beautifully in the soft places of this life, but was never meant to take root among stones and stand through storm and whirlwind. Could such a nature comprehend and affiliate with a great soul?"

"I did not know then, what I knew afterward, that she had been an orphan from a child, leading a quiet, colorless life—aye, colorless, indeed, but for the imaginary world she had created around her."

"She was a novelist and sketch writer of no mean ability, but had been very poor until a recent successful book had suddenly brought her a small store of wealth and enabled her, with economy, to travel."

"This handsome, light hearted man, with his merry words, his graceful attentions and the deferential gallantry of a mediæval knight, brought color, music, poetry and laughter into her life."

"The ideal mantle which she had been weaving so many solitary years now descended on this man, and behold him transformed to a hero, the one matchless in all the world—and her king!"

"The spell was upon her, a new world had opened on her view. Ah, she was looking down to Camelot."

"I shall never forget a certain excursion to the old castle of Dilsberg, near which we spent the day."

"We had become acquainted with another American family, who were staying for the summer in Heidelberg, and this lady and her daughter, together with the professor, Miss Stirling, Phil and I, made up the party. The day was bright, and every one was in a merry humor."

"We were in just that high state of exhilaration when, apparently, nothing restrained us from sailing off in the air on our mountain sticks but the presence of the professor and the circumspect widow, who chaperoned the party. There was no end to the mad tricks and vagaries that every one felt at liberty to perpetrate, and Edna Stirling led the frolic."

"Phil had been more than usually attentive to her that day. He was her shadow and her slave, and, like a bird spreading its wings and singing in the sunshine, she fairly revelled in this atmosphere of love and merriment."

"She seemed to embody the airy whimsicalities, the erratic music and graceful humor of a whole French opera in herself."

"But, in spite of her coquettish and mad pranks, she knew just when to stop. Not one of us would have dared to speak in a more familiar tone to her when we went home than when we started out."

"That night, in the privacy of our own room, as we smoked a consoling pipe, the day's doings came up for discussion. Referring to Miss Stirling, I said:

"What a wonderful fond of spirits she has!"

"She was simply intoxicating to-day."

"His words somehow jarred on me. There was something in the tone that struck me as not that of a man in love. Evidently he did not think of her as I had begun to imagine she thought of him."

"A few evenings after this occurred the conversation which was a prototype of tonight's."

"We had been speaking of literary women, and Phil had used some of the identical expressions that you have. I believe he had also quoted Hawthorne, to the effect that when a woman has other aims in life she is not likely to fall in love, which simply goes to prove that Hawthorne on some points was a misguided man."

"At last he applied his deductions to Miss Stirling, summing it all up, with, 'More intellect than heart, depend upon it.'"

"It is quite plain that you are not in love with her," I said, "or you wouldn't talk in that way."

"I don't know whether I am or not."

"Well, I think for her sake you ought to find out before things go much further."

"He opened his eyes at me just as you did tonight and looked in a surprised, innocent sort of way."

"Why, I wonder if one can't indulge in a delightful little platonic friendship without 'things going too far,' and all that nonsense," he said, with some irritation.

"Are you sure she looks at it in that light?"

"Why, certainly. She has often given me to understand as much. Bless you, I wouldn't dare to make love to her; she'd wither me at the first tender word. Besides she'll never care as much for any human being as she does for her books. If she does I am not the one. I am amusing her for the time being, and the pleasure of the thing being mutual I'm quite satisfied with the arrangement."

PORTER VILLAGE.

Isaac Sawyer was drawn juryman for the October term of court.

Mark Sawyer, who is clerk for Towle & Ridlon, is leaving his vacation. Ask at Williamson & Kimball's for L. R. The farm buildings of Joseph Hobbs at East Freedom, N. H., were entirely destroyed by fire; cause, struck by lightning. Mr. Hobbs died in a few hours from the effects of the fright. The greater part of his household goods were saved. No insurance.

The town schools commenced, Sept. 5th, with the following teachers:—Kearz Falls, grammar department, Sidney Stanley; primary, Flora Lord. Porter village, Ellsworth Sawyer; Porter Centre, Annie Stanley; Lois vacation. Grace Stanley, Rand district, Isaac Brown; Cole district, Winifred Watson.

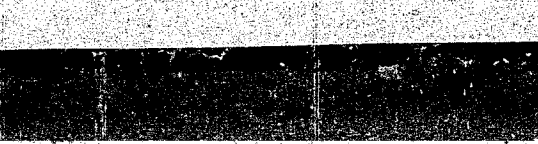

The Lillian Russell cigar draws fine.

Pastor Wanted.

We are without a pastor, but we are anxious to have the day. An angelic pastor may wander this way. Who can live, work and suffer, yet never complain. If sometimes he fails his dues to obtain; if he is sometimes meek, not puffed up with pride. Not greedy, nor selfish, nor dissatisfied, but devoted to take what the church may afford. Knowing patience is ever its own best reward.

UPTON.

H. F. West is extensively repairing his mill. Gerry Brooks is working at Middle Dam.

Sim Barnett and wife from Stark are in town.

Mr. Brewster and party have returned to their homes.

H. I. Abbott is at Errol doing carpenter work on a barn.

S. E. Morse and Will Sargent are guiding for a party at the State.

Charles Douglass is running his boat again. Bion Sanborn is engineer.

Cyrus Coolidge and granddaughter Gertrude went to Canton fair, last week.

J. P. West, who has been very sick, is so far recovered as to be out. He still walks with two canes.

Lee West and family, who have passed the summer in town, have returned to their home in Minnesota. Claude Abbott went with them.

Philip West began threshing, Oct. 4th. He has a six-horse power engine. He has taken a job to press 200 tons of hay at Magalloway and has ordered a new press, which is now due.

Mr. Buck, the teacher in the upper room, resigned his position as he had an offer of a school for a year quite up his home. This makes it very inconvenient as the best teachers are apt to be engaged.

Before sunrise, Oct. 1st, we noticed a hunter after those deer which have pastured in Mr. Sweet's field all summer. We think it speaks well of the town's people as law abiding citizens that the deer have remained unmolested so long.

There was a paring bee at Arthur Strickland's, Friday evening. There were about forty present, who soon finished the apples, then a lunch consisting of pumpkin pie, two kinds of cake and grapes was passed round, afterwards games until the "wee sma' hours." All hope to be able to be present at many more bees at Mr. Strickland's.

HEBRON.

Maud and Amy Cushman of Auburn were in Hebron, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Cushman visited at Mechanic Falls, last Saturday.

Daisy W. Cushman spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Rosa Richardson.

Mrs. Lizzie Josslyn, Leon and Verna Josslyn of Auburn were at L. P. Bearce's, Saturday and Sunday.

The annual Harvest Home of the Hebron Baptist church will be held, Thursday afternoon and evening, Oct. 20th.

The ladies' circle met, Tuesday afternoon, at their room in the church, with a picnic supper in the evening at which the gentlemen were invited.

There was another watermelon feast at L. P. Bearce's, Saturday evening. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Donham, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stearns, Daisy W. Cushman, Bertha and Jennie Packard.

The horse trot at Mechanic Falls, Saturday, participated in by Hebron people for 50 bushels of oats terminated as follows: P. V. Everett, 1st; C. W. Cummings, 2d; E. M. Glover, 3d; W. A. Bartlett, 4th; A. D. Cummings, 5th.

Dr. Crane, Prof. and Mrs. Sargent and Miss Whitman went to Topsham, last Thursday, to attend the wedding and reception of Isabel D. Thompson and Dr. George S. Macchett. Dr. Crane performed the ceremony, the Episcopal ring service being used.

The trustees of Hebron Academy met, last Saturday, to make plans for building a fine dormitory on their lately purchased grounds. John Calvin Stevens, the architect from Portland, met with them. They were entertained by Prof. Sargent. Work will begin on the grounds immediately.

OTISFIELD.

H. H. Edwards has a lame hand. Etta Smith remains about the same. Mrs. Algernon Mayberry is quite sick. Frank Latulip is to work for George Blinn.

Carrie Weston is teaching at South Casco.

Mrs. Lovica Mayberry is still very feeble.

Mrs. M. D. Andrews visited relatives in Albany, last week.

Mrs. Rose Edwards is quite sick with cold and lung trouble.

Mrs. Charles Noble of Poland Spring is visiting at Albert Hamlin's.

Gladys, little daughter of Eugene Edwards, picked a handful of ripe raspberries, Oct. 3.

John Newcomb and family of Cumberland Mills visited relatives and friends in this place, recently.

STOW.

Georgia Walker is attending school at Fryeburg.

Ernest Emerson has returned from Massachusetts.

We had a very exciting base ball game. Stow played with West Bridgton. The score was 30 to 14 in favor of Stows.

The schools of districts No. 7 and 2 are to be united. The school commenced, Monday. Frank Emery conveys the scholars. Willis Walker, teacher.

EAST HIRAM.

Isaac L. Brown has sold his place to James O. Miller of Steep Falls.

Rev. J. A. Corey held quarterly meeting at the Methodist church, Tuesday evening.

Hiram ball club played with Brownfield club at Brownfield, Saturday, winning the game by a score of 24 to 18.

Mrs. Nancy J. Greene of Madison is the guest of her son, R. G. Greene, who is suffering with erysipelas in his hand.

Mrs. E. E. Hanson and granddaughter, Vera Hoyt, went to Deering, Saturday, to visit her cousin, Mrs. Harmon, returning, Monday.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson went to the Grand Assembly, Pythian Sisterhood in Portland, Thursday, as representative from Saco Valley Assembly. Other delegates attending were Mrs. A. Y. Dow, Mrs. L. H. Hubbard and Mrs. James Evans.

DIXFIELD CENTRE.

The box supper for the benefit of Downing Holman, Saturday evening, was a success. They realized about $7.50.

The Social Club are going to have a dance at Hiram Holman's hall, the 5th. Cake and coffee at 10 o'clock.

Dannie Holman, while out hunting, last week, loaded one barrel to his gun twice and when he fired it kicked him over, tearing his hip open and laming his shoulder. The doctor took 13 stitches in his hip. He is doing nicely.

NORWAY LAKE.

J. L. Partridge is quite sick with grippe. Iva and Grace Kilgore have been quite sick with colds.

E. F. Smith of Norway was at Mrs. Marston's, Tuesday.

Miss S. P. Newhall went back to her work in Boston, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hall of Mechanic Falls visited at John Kneeland's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood and children visited in Harrison, Saturday and Sunday.

David Flood and Oscar Needham went to Fryeburg, Tuesday, and came back, Wednesday.

Mrs. Marston has returned from her visit in Waterford. She has been quite ill with a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby Frost of Harrison visited at David Flood's and Asa Frost's, Saturday and Sunday.

Simon Stevens of Norway Lake, a man now in his eighty-first year, has this season been the proud owner of the finest melon patch in town, one melon measuring three feet, three inches one way and two feet, nine inches the other. Another fruit taken from the vines a few days since was equally large, and there were many others above the average of growth in this vicinity. How many young farmers can equal or exceed this?

EAST OTISFIELD.

Stephen D. Jilson went to Portland, Saturday.

S. H. Wardwell went to Brighton, Mass., Monday, with cattle.

Harry E. Ramsdell went to Harrison, Saturday, and returned, Sunday.

Mrs. George A. Dingley returned home from Massachusetts, Tuesday.

George S. Jordan has returned home from Elliott where he has been visiting.

NEW GOODS for FALL

ALL DEPARTMENTS NOW READY FOR BUSINESS.

NEW BLACK DRESS GOODS, NEW COLORED DRESS GOODS, NEW SILK NOVELTIES, NEW CLOAKS, SUITS, WAISTS, ETC.

Black and Colored Dress Goods.

OUR NEW LINE of Black and Colored Dress Goods is open, and with no small amount of pride, we ask you to inspect it. You have long known this store as a good place to buy these goods. This season we shall, if possible, strengthen that idea. For weeks the manager of our Dress Goods department has been investigating every acceptable authority on the all-absorbing subject of what is to be most worn, this season. Good judgment and a complete interest in our customers have accomplished a most satisfactory showing—far ahead of previous seasons, and the new Dress Goods Stock will undoubtedly prove to be of interest. The colors of the season are exquisite, the qualities never better, the varieties never larger and the prices are right.

SILKS.

SILKS AS DRESS GOODS, once a luxury, have now, through the medium of American ingenuity, both at home and abroad, become a popular necessity, with all indications to the fact that they will be more generally worn, this fall, than ever. This season, silks show many changes and improvements over previous years. The New Fancy Silks are entirely different from anything shown for years, both in style and colorings, while the Plain Silks, particularly those for dresses, are finished in a way so entirely new as to make a sharp contrast from any shown in the past few years.

Cloak and Suit Department.

WE HAVE PLACED ON SALE Our New Stock of Fall Cloaks and Furs, and show every desirable kind of cloth or Fur Garment for woman or child. New Fall Suits and Separate Skirts, the best line we ever had of black and colored Silk Waists, a new assortment of woolen Tea Gowns and Wrappers, new Golf Capes coming in every day. Children's School Dresses.

LADIES VISITING PORTLAND during the music festival are cordially invited to look through our establishment. You will be under no obligation to buy, but will be courteously waited upon, and you can spend a pleasant hour or more and at the same time learn something about styles and prices.

SOUTH PARIS, MAINE.

North Waterford Fair.

Among small town fairs that of North Waterford is unique. The people for miles around gather there and have a good time and go again the next day and take some more with them and a town fair continues two days. It is held all over the village and the breezes that fan the hilltop blow away the dust and smoke and take away that oppressiveness of the atmosphere which is so marked at gatherings held in valleys.

The Live Stock.

This part of the fair was held in the sheds above the church and alongside the road nearby. There were some good cattle on the grounds, and it is evident that heavier breeds are favored by the people of this vicinity.

P. A. Pottle of Lovell Center exhibited a yearling Holstein bull, straight-backed and as black as they grow; and also a two-year-old Durham heifer that is marked for a good milker.

George H. Rice—a pair of two-year-old steers, red with stars in forehead, and measuring 6 feet, 11 inches. Pretty yoke of Holstein yearlings.

Fred L. Ray—a brindle cow with narrow face and pointed nose, strongly marked with the characteristics of the Jerseys. Two black-nosed Jersey heifers. Two-year-old steers of Holstein and Durham blood and a stocky grade Holstein bull calf.

C. H. Rice—5-year-old red oxen, one with top horns, 7 feet 2 inches. Joshua Saunders—Pair of white faced Hereford yearling steers; and a yoke of Holsteins of same age. Black two-year-old heifer, yearling Holstein heifer, three nice bossy calves.

W. H. Chadbourne—Two yokes of two-year-old steers. One pair are shiny Holsteins, the other brindle and of mixed blood.

S. L. Lebrooke—Grade Holstein yearling bull, Grade Durham yearling heifer. G. M. Harriman—Pair matched steer calves, Herefords.

H. W. Saunders—Two-year-old heifer, black and white. E. L. Pike—Three-year-old thoroughbred Holstein bull, 6 feet 6 inches in girth, and heavily colored with black.

Edgar J. Hobbs, Norway Lake—Holstein bull, King William Colanhus 22044 H. F. H. B. This bull is nearly white. Also three handsome Holstein calves.

Savin Bros.—Yoke of brockle-faced oxen, with fine intelligent heads, 6 years old, 7 feet 2 inches.

John Lord—Red oxen, 6 years old, 7 feet 3 inches; and a pair of good red steers, 3-year-olds, 6 feet 3 inches.

Friday afternoon, there was a pulling match over a sandy course. Lord's and Savin's big oxen tackled a drag loaded with 4,000 pounds of granite. Lord's jerked it along 22½ feet in 5 minutes and their competitors pulled it 9½ feet. The ground was bad and the pulling was not so good as the cattle could have done with a better chance. Lord's steers also tried a load of 3,000 pounds and hauled it 15 feet.

M. F. Knight had a long woolled, white-faced, clean-limbed ram on exhibition, evidently of Leicester blood.

On the Common and All Around.

The common is where the fakirs hold forth and the jugglery is done. There was an abundant supply of liquid inspiration from the jockey's paradise, and some people got hilarious. The fakirs were numerous and noisy. The most obnoxious of the discord and organ, around with its discord and organ. Health of Gilead was the man with that enterprise and he easily led them all in gross receipts.

Three men were in the tinsy business and lots had their picture taken. The managers were Ward Bowler of Bethel, W. H. Merrow of Lewiston and G. E. Gustin of Westbrook.

Fred Rowe of Old Orchard—seabreeze pop corn.

Old Dr. Drew, electric healer, of Portland, drove over from the Canton fair and found a remunerative patronage for his appliances and remedies.

Ernest Davis, Oxford—fruit, nuts, etc. Elmer W. Cordwell, Albany—candy stand.

William H. Winchester, South Paris—a ball game, music on the gramophone, candy, etc.

C. W. Willey of Norway is a well known peddler. His wagon load of wares was spread out so that all could examine them. He had a large array of clothing, drygoods, footwear and notions and was doing a good business.

The spectacle man was A. G. Woodsum of Mechanic Falls.

Hot frankfurters and cold drinks were run by F. C. Wentworth, who hails from New Milford in the Nutmeg State, otherwise known as the "land of steady habits."

10 cts. would buy a picture of your future wife or husband. That didn't seem to attract many. The people either had spouses or had one engaged or didn't want one, we don't know which.

Twitcomb Bros. of Oxford are old favorites and found a ready sale for their fruit.

A. J. Nevers of Norway was doing a thriving business in soda water, hot lunch, candy, fruit, etc.

W. H. Merrow of Lewiston had a cane-board and African dodger.

Elsie Desmond, the fortune teller, sat in a black wigwag surrounded by bunches of evergreen trees and didn't tell many fortunes. We should think she would get tired of following the fairs where people care more about the present than the future.

A. Lovejoy of Oxford had a good lot of patrons for his hot oyster stew.

E. L. McKean of Lynn and William Morrill of Augusta, run striking machines.

Lorenzo Valente of Lewiston had a big wagon load of fruit.

Leslie Cummings of Albany dealt in peanuts and drinks. Henry P. Merrill of Bethel sold soft drinks.

His name was Libby and he in his base ball range had the only Spaniard on the grounds.

George Stevens of Biddeford and W. G. McKean of Lynn were side by side with cane rack, base ball range and rifle range.

Irving's great museum, aggregation of wonders, etc., contained a Punch and Judy show, a mind reader and a few curios.

Dr. Ashley of Portland did painless tooth pulling.

Frank Russell came all the way from Newport, N. S., to follow the Maine fairs with a cigar board.

M. Ladd from Hallowell was the only candy maker there.

ARMY USES NERVURA.

Maj. Caygle and Maj. Pebbles Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura.

High Officers of Salvation Army Recommend People to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, Because it Cured Them. They Know it will Cure the Sick and Suffering Everywhere.

Maj. Rawson Caygle, Trade Secretary of the Salvation Army at National Headquarters, 120 West 14th Street, New York City, says:

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy now for some time, and on more than one occasion when suffering from nervousness brought on through over-work, I have found it to act as an immediate cure. I have also found it to be a great relief for neuralgia."

Whenever I hear of any case among our officers of sickness either mental or physical, brought through the strain of their varied duties, I invariably recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura, and I know of several cases in which it has proved of the greatest possible benefit. It gives me great pleasure to add my testimony to the many others in its favor."

Maj. H. May Pebbles, Commander of Southern Division, Salvation Army, 928 R St., Washington, D. C., says:

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for some time past. I was very ill and quite unable to perform my duties, but with the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura I have been able to perform a great amount of work, which I do not think I should have been able to do in my own strength. I believe Dr. Greene's Nervura has been a help and benefit to me."

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will cure you if you will use it. Bear in mind also that you can consult about your case personally or by letter, without charge, with Dr. Greene, 34 Temple Place, Boston, Mass., acknowledged to be the most successful physician in curing disease.

You will be pleased with a L. R. cigar.

Lizzie Farmer—handkerchief case, mat, star pattern.

Maudie Becker—lace tidy, large lamp mat for parlor table; embroidered table cover with wide trimming of fine lace; tidy; silk sofa pillow.

Mrs. Lydia M. Sawin, picture throw, sofa pillow.

Minnie R. Littlefield—pin cushion. Mrs. Ray H. Lord—5 crocheted table mats.

Mrs. H. P. Elliott—hexagon lace tidy, handkerchief holder, ribbon mat, a half dozen all cloth mats with crocheted edges. G. Maudie Allen, 9 years old—tidy.

Carrie M. Fiske—a couple of landscape pastels. Miss Fiske is an artist of considerable promise.

Mrs. Annie Allen—crochet handkerchief case, set crocheted table mats. Sadie E. Flint, age 12—crazy quilt which shows an ability for needlework.

Keepers about the good qualities of these stores. He found the ladies interested listeners and says that he expects to sell more of these ranges as people know them better.

F. C. Merrill of South Paris explained the merits of a couple of his O. K. swivel plows, good for hillside or level land. He has a plow that does its work well and is easy to handle. Farmers who use the O. K. say it is the best swivel plow they know.

Hall Display.

The upper story of the schoolhouse was used as cattle show hall. The display was not so large as that of 1897.

Henry Savin had the largest collection of field and garden products and fruit. Cucumbers, squashes, pumpkins, seven varieties potatoes (Delaware, White, Dakota, Red, Early Ohio, American Wonder, Vick's Early, Farmer's Delight, Maggie Murphy), 8 plates of apples, one plate of crab apples. The garden stuff was clean, well grown and looked wholesome, and the fruit would be creditable in a good year for apples. Mr. Savin also showed some fine popcorn and yellow sweet corn which is said to be more delicious than the white.

James McAllister—pumpkins, squash, watermelon.

Isaac Flint—muskmelons. Amos Barker—a trace of long well-filled ears of 12-rowed yellow field corn.

E. B. Harsy—extra early Crawford sweet corn; Honor Bright tomatoes, which have the peculiarity of changing color to both red and white.

George W. Briggs—two Chili squashes, one 6½ and the other 8½ pounds. H. Plummer—two cabbages. We were unable to learn the variety, but one weighs 12½ lbs. and its mate 20½.

Moses L. Mason of North Albany is another man whose apples have done well, this year. He had 17 plates and one plate of crab apples on exhibition.

Mrs. Annie F. Flint—a half peck of large highly colored cranberries.

C. R. Pottle, Center Lovell—a trace of excellent field corn.

There were some nice flowers there. Mrs. Rebecca Fiske had half a hundred dahlias in one bouquet. They were crimson, scarlet, purple, yellow, orange and brown and not an imperfect blossom in the collection.

Mrs. Annie Allen—large begonia with dainty pink blossoms.

Mrs. Paris Paige—pot of bushy ageratum with an abundance of purple bloom.

Mrs. Dresser—some handsome nasturtiums.

A handsome bouquet of seasonal flowers—calendula predominating—was unlabeled.

Mrs. Eva M. Woodbury was the largest exhibitor of crocheted and needlework and fancy articles. 10 dollars embroidered in floral designs; crocheted mats, tidies, in floral designs; a complete set of center pieces and a complete set of splashes, etc.; picture throws; crepe paper handkerchief and glove holders.

Mrs. Ed. Farmer—crocheted frame for cabinet photograph, netting picture throw, wheel pattern tidy.

NORWAY CENTER.

School commenced, Monday, with eleven pupils. Alice M. Rounds, teacher. Adna Hobbs and wife visited at Ed Cox's, last week.

A little McKay boy from the village is living at Edwin Hobbs' and attending school in this district.

Ben Richardson is at home from Falmouth. His brother George who is working at the same place made his parents a short visit, recently, and has returned.

A young man by the name of Stillman Cole, from Greenwood, who was at work for Wm. Hobbs while outting his ensilage, started on his bicycle in great haste for the village as some part of the machinery was broken, to get it mended. While going down the big hill by the schoolhouse he was thrown from his wheel and landed about twenty-seven feet from them. Edmund Green being in the field near by at work saw him when he went off and ran to find out how badly he was hurt. He found him bruised and badly cut. He was carried to the house of Mr. Green, nearly unconscious, remaining so until about eleven o'clock that night when he asked where he was and what had happened. The next afternoon he was married home and the doctor says that he thinks he will be all right in a short time.

Have you tried a Lillian Russell cigar?

SOUTH PARIS.

SINGE POLLE.—Mrs. Cyrus Millett visited her sister, Mrs. E. E. Lander, recently.

C. F. Harriman has a new horse. Lovina Starbird is visiting her niece and old friends.

William Henry Durrell and Miss Britton from Massachusetts have been visiting his cousin, Mrs. C. W. Shaw.

M. L. Rowe was at his aunt's, Mrs. E. E. Lander's, Monday. He reported his brother, Walter E. Rowe, as doing well.

John Thurlow and his uncle, E. E. Lander, went up to Woodstock, Friday, and returned, Sunday. Sunday afternoon, John Thurlow went to visit his father, Monday, E. E. Lander went to Norway to see his uncle, Mrs. O. B. Warren of Rochester, N. H.

No. 4 HILL.—Cyrus Pratt is moving from the Olaf Shaw farm to Paris Hill. Augustus Thurlow has a new horse.

John Thurlow is working for Nathan Maxim.

The new road is passable as far as the Bessey road.

A. O. Corbett, Nathan Maxim and Forest W. Wiman are building one part of the new road.

Bert Shaw and wife from Lewiston have been at his uncle's, C. H. Shaw's. He came to go hunting.

ELM HILL.—Several of the school children have chicken pox.

Dogs have killed some more sheep for H. L. Swift.

H. P. Ellis is making about fifty lbs. of butter per week.

We noticed A. G. Dudley, who is 75, out with a span of horses, plowing.

It seems as if hunters might use more caution than to fire directly at houses. It is not pleasant to have shot whizz past your head and strike the windows like hail as happened here, recently.

Cured of Asthma.

After 35 Years of Suffering.

It will be gratifying to Asthmatic readers to learn that an absolute cure has at last been discovered by Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann. That the remedy is an effective one cannot be doubted after perusal of such testimony as that of C. W. W. of Norway, N. Y., who says:

"Your Asthma Cure is the best I ever used. I tried it according to directions, and one box entirely cured me of asthma, and I have not had it since. I can now go to bed and sleep all night with perfect comfort, which I have not done before for 35 years and I thank you for the health that I now enjoy. I hope that you will publish this letter, that others may learn of its wonderful virtues."

Schiffmann's Asthma Cure is sold by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00 per package, or can be obtained by writing direct to Dr. R. Schiffmann, Box 504, St. Paul, Minn.

On the Bias.
That's the secret of the 5/A Bias Girth Horse Blankets. The girls are on the Bias—that means they are crossed. They work automatically. The blanket can't slip. If you pull one side the other side keeps the blanket from sliding, and yet it doesn't bind the horse. He can't rub it loose. He couldn't displace it if he rolled in it.

5/A BIAS GIRTH
Horse Blankets are made in all styles—to fit any horse—to suit any purse. Ask your dealer for 5/A Bias Girth Blankets and look for the trade-mark. A book on the subject sent free.
